

Mission-

- To empower local communities to take action to safeguard the environment and natural resources for themselves and future generations.
- To achieve this through community participation in our projects and activities and ensuring local people are consulted throughout the process of development.
- We strive towards building a sustainable future for mankind based on social justice and believe that this can only be achieved through the up-holding of all human rights and the rule of law.
- Empowerment of marginalized communities to safeguard their human rights and improve their local environment.
- Restoring and conserving water and agricultural land alongside providing nutritious and healthy food sustainably to both current and future generations
- Preventing and reducing pollution of natural resources, and ensuring their sustainable use to guarantee that our environment does not pose a risk to human health, and can sustain an appropriate and diverse wildlife.

About Us

The Foundation is an independent, non-profit NGO, actively engaged in the promotion of human welfare through environmental protection since 1998. Our key areas of work include:

- Groundwater quality protection for human health and Provision of safe drinking water to marginalized communities and Enhancement of available water resources through water conservation measures.
- Promotion of Women Empowerment and Women Safety.
- The emancipation of poverty through education and child rights for children of marginalized communities.
- Promotion of sustainable agriculture by organic farming methods, along with environmental awareness.

The

ssue

Vigilance Week

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

VIGILANCE WORKSHOP

JANHIT FOUNDATION, MEERUT

October 2017

On 4 October 2017, Child-line Meerut organized a vigilance workshop in Holy Angel's Convent School and S.D. Public School, Muzaffarnagar with an aim to make the students aware of any inappropriate behavior with them. Ms. Anita Rana informed the children about the 1098 helpline. Child-line works to resolve problems of the children in the age group of 0-18 years.

Dr. Poonam Devdutt, a Psychiatrist urged the parents to notice any anomalies in their children's behavior since it is their responsibility as parents. Children often hesitate to share such incidents with their parents and thus, their role becomes even more important. The workshop was a success as a large number of students actively listened to the speakers.

"Childhood should be carefree, playing in the sun; not living a nightmare in the darkness of the soul."

International Day of Girl Child

KHARKHAUDA, MEERUT

OCTOBER 2017

Childline Meerut organized an event on 10th October to honor the girls of Kasturba Gandhi Residential School in Kharkhauda on the eve of International Day of Girl child. Ms. Anita Rana, Director of Janhit foundation, awarded all the girl students who do not have parents, but are still studying with the help of their guardians. The relatives who took an initiative to make girl child study were also honored and were encouraged to educate them further.

Janhit foundation secretary Dr. Neera Tomar enlightened the girls on the importance of education. "If you educate a man, you educate an individual. But if you educate a woman, you educate a nation". The students presented beautiful plays on Child labor and female feticide. This event left a positive imprint on the girls.

International Day of the Girl Child, also known as Day of the Girl is observed on October 11 annually. It is celebrated to raise awareness among people about all the inequalities faced by the girl child in the society.

National Girl Child Day is celebrated on 24th of January annually. It is celebration to offer supports and new opportunities to the girls in the country.

If any boy or girl feels that their rights are being violated, they can call 1098 - Child helpline and inform the authority which will take proper actions against the perpetrators. The abused child will be counselled and taken care of.

Awareness about POCSO Act

On 12 October 2017, Janhit foundation ran an awareness campaign in St. Johns Senior Public school, Meerut. The aim of the campaign was to educate people about child rights and the “The Protection of children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012” through the medium of a presentation. Teachers were urged to come out openly and make their students aware of sexual harassments. Ms. Anita Rana made the students aware of the child helpline 1098 in detail.

Dr. Poonam Devdutt, a psychiatrist, informed the audience that if they find any student stressed, they must carefully listen to their problems. In case the student does not want to open up, they should be taken to the Psychiatrist. Such students can also call 1098 where their problems will be heard. Apart from this, any abandoned or orphan children can be helped through this toll free number which is a project of the Ministry of women and child development.

“KAILASH SATYARTHI CHILDREN’S FOUNDATION” INDIA TOUR

Moonshine resort witnessed an informative event against Child Trafficking and Rape, organized by Kailash Satyarthi Children’s Foundation. The foundation organized an “India Tour” event taking along children from all parts of the country. This rally of people reached Meerut on 14 October 2017 and was welcomed by the Janhit Foundation, Meerut. Ms. Anita Rana took the opportunity to enlighten the students on 1098 helpline in detail.

Mrs. Meenakshi Bharala, Zila Panchayat member, along with her husband Mr. Satyendra Bharala also explained about the child-line 1098. During the event, girls of Kasturba Gandhi Residential Girls Schools, Meerut presented a heart-warming play on child labor, which focused on how the child-line 1098 works and how it can help in case of child labor. The girls were honored after the play ended.

“I refuse to accept that the shackles of slavery can ever be stronger than the quest for freedom”

- Kailash Satyarthi

Ms. Anita Rana, urged the audience to call the child-line in case they see any underage child working, being exploited, lost or abandoned. The program ended with an applaud by the audience.

Awareness about Child-line

Ms. Anita Rana gave a detailed description of 1098 helpline to the students and teachers of the school. ChildLine is a national helpline which works for 0-18 year old children and works 24*7. Children can seek assistance through this helpline number. Children were informed about the difference between good touch and bad touch and the teachers were urged to tell the students about the various provisions against Sexual Harassment. Child-Line explained about Child Welfare Committee, which works for the welfare of 0-18 year old children. The Child can be produced by a guardian or can produce himself before the court. Their details would not be disclosed to anyone. Students and teachers were distributed pamphlets. The School thanked Ms. Anita Rana and appreciated the ChildLine for its various Initiatives

Open House

An Open house was organized in Kasheru Khera on 20 November 2017. 3 members of Child-line, Meerut presented a play on Child Labor. it is a legal offence to employ children below the age of 14 years. 1098 should be informed in case a child is not well, lonely or is a victim of any kind of harassment or Child Labor. Various characters were portrayed by different members of the Child Line. People were also told that girls below the age of 18 years should not be married, doing so is also a legal offence and there is a provision of Imprisonment or fine for the perpetrators of the crime. ChildLine should be informed in such cases as well. The play was very well presented by the Child-Line team. People present there were distributed pamphlets and were urged to contact 1098 in the future in case of need.

Meeting with all the Child Welfare Officials in Meerut City

Various child related issues were discussed with the child welfare officials. They were informed about 1098 and the “Protection of Children Against Sexual Offences Act 2012” and were urged to remain vigilant of the various child rights, and to rescue the children out of the dangerous situations as quickly as possible.

The officials were requested to be proactive in rendering their duties as the child welfare officer. These officials even gave few suggestions for Childline and pledged to help the children in the best possible way. In the end, contact numbers of these officials were recorded.

A Workshop on Good Touch vs Bad Touch

A workshop was organized on 24 January 2018, in “The Adhyayan School”, Shatabdi Nagar Meerut. Ms. Anita Rana made the students aware on the working of 1098 and how it works 24* 7 for the welfare of the children. Children were urged to call the helpline in case of any misbehavior with them. A movie “Komal” was screened on the school campus and the children were taught to discriminate between a good touch and a bad touch. Janhit Foundation taught the children that they own their bodies and no one has the right to touch them unless it's okay with them. Childline made the girls aware of their private parts and encouraged them to report to their parents or anyone they trust if anyone tries to touch them. Childline team member said, “Good touch is a touch that feels safe or feels warm and makes them smile, like parents hugging or holding hands. A bad touch is a touch which hurts one's body or feelings, like someone touching their private places. The school Principal Mrs. Sharmila Basu Rai was present there and thanked the ChildLine team for the enlightening session.

Exuberancemarks “Childline se Dosti” week-

ChildLine Meerut commenced its annual event, “ChildLine se dosti” week on 7 November 2017 with enthusiasm. It is week long awareness and engagement programme organized by the Janhit foundation to mark the Children’s day.

Day 1-

In collaboration with world vision organization ChildLine organized a postcard event at tarapuri ,malin basti where almost 500 students wrote postcards to social representatives of Meerut which includes MLAs ,and the District Magistrate

Some postcards were sent to the honorable chief minister as well as various organizations that worked for child welfare ,Children were also told about various development schemes undertaken by the government

The children highlighted the problems in their regions through creative postcards and even the government for the existing development schemes .They further expect the government to remain alarmed of the violations of child rights (harassment etc.) in the future as well and hope for a better future

Under the programme, the children were very cheerful and enthusiastic to speak about their rights. The child line team enacted a street play and carried out a rally to make children aware about child labor.

Day 2-

The second day of “childline se dosti week” began with an Art competition at Malusingh Arya kanya Inter college ,Daurala organised by Child-line Meerut. The theme for the event was “child rights” in which about 100 girls participated ,Students presented their thoughts with creative posters explaining child rights in a simple yet effective manner “Beti Bachao ,Beti padhao” and “Compulsory education for women” were the important topics covered during the event. Some girls associated child rights with environment and beautifully presented them .The main objective of the Competition was to make the students aware of their rights and to make them bold enough to raise their voices .They were told about the helpline 1098 which is meant especially for children.

DAY 3-

A health check-up camp was organized at Kasturba Gandhi Girls Residential school, Kharkhauda. More than 100 school girls turned up to the camp for their physical and blood checkup to test their hemoglobin levels. Delegates from Indian Medical Association (IMA) and senior prominent pediatrician like Dr. Shishir Jain, Dr. Deepak Goel, Dr. Medhavi Tomar and gynecologist Dr. Monica Tomar gave their valuable contribution to the camp. The doctors gave health tips and provided them medicines that they required. Personalized treatments were provided to the needy girls. The warden and teachers of the school also helped in successfully arranging the event

JANHIT
FOUNDATION

Day - 4

“Color is a power that directly influences the soul”. Janhit foundation organized a Rangoli competition at Malhu Singh Girls Inter college. All the girls of the school participated in the competition and displayed their skills by making various kinds of Rangolis. The Rangolis were made on different problems related to children. The biggest challenge was to complete the task in stipulated time, which the girls took gracefully by making clean & attractive designs. Students displayed high level of discipline which is very essential in life.

I am CHILDLINE Dost. Are you?

DAY-5:

During the fifth day of the week, Children were taken to Carnival cinemas for a movie screening “Secret Superstar” starring Amir Khan and Zaira Wasim. The film is based on a story of a girl who fights against the conservative society to fulfill her dreams. The children were excited and ready to enjoy the movie. They, later, shared their experiences with the child-line team. It was a totally new experience for most of them. A student said, “This movie taught us to trust our own abilities even in difficult situations”. In the end, the team urged the children to always keep learning new things.

DAY-6:

A programme was organized for the girls of Kasturba Gandhi School, Kharkhauda, where they were told about the Prime Minister’s “Mann ki baat” radio show where he talks about the various new schemes undertaken by the government like “Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan”, “Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao”, “Kaushal Vikas Yojana” and “Make in India” initiatives. The students displayed a lot of enthusiasm and participated with full zeal. The girl students then wrote letters to the Prime Minister with a hope to see similar schemes in the near future for the development of the country. Child-line helped them post the letters to the Prime Minister. The event was a

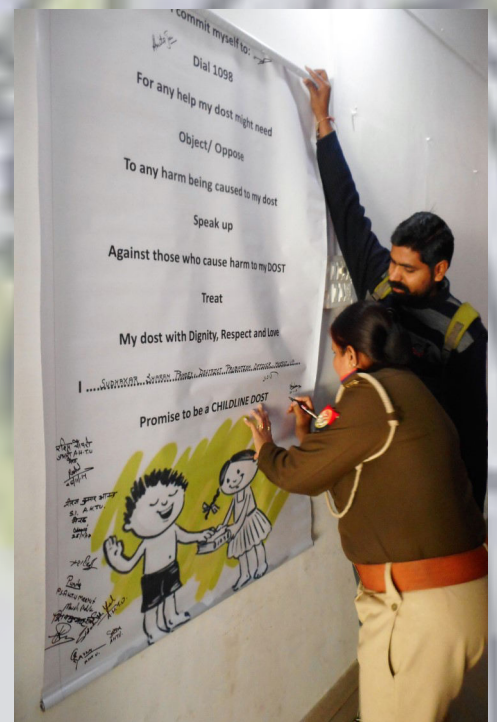

DAY-7:

Child-line organized a signature campaign in the district to aware the people about child-line, an initiative to help abandoned or suffering children. Officers of high ranks from their respective departments: Probation officer, President of children welfare committee and other members, Anti-human trafficking unit, Women police officers and Medical police officers pledged to inform the child-line 1098 in case they see any child in the age group of 0-18 years facing any kind of suffering that is against child rights.

The passersby were also urged to pledge for the same. Everyone promised to imbibe all the points of child-line in their lives. People, from small children to senior citizens, were informed about the need for Child-line in the city.

The Entire Week –A Snapshot

