JANHIT FOUNDATION

FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

Mrs. ANITA RANA

As we come to an end of yet another year, I proudly share the achievements of Janhit Foundation in the past three months. We were able to spread awareness about the childline with the help of successful programs like the Childline se dosti week. Messages of clean and healthy environment and women empowerment were also spread through various programs. With the successful 2015 behind us, I am looking forward for the new challenges in 2016.

Wishing everyone a great and prosperous 2016.

Fauna (means the wildlife) of India.

"Speak for the ones without a voice"

Janhit foundation has been actively engaged in the welfare of environment under the Environment Protection Act. They organized a program in association with Forest department during the World Wildlife week from 1 -7 October, 2015.

INTERNATIONAL GIRL CHILD DAY

International Girl Child day is annually held on 11th Oct, 2015 to promote girl's right and highlights gender inequalities that remain between girls and boys. Janhit foundation organized a program in the Kasturba Gandhi Balika Avasiya Vidyalaya, Meerut with the purpose of making the girls aware about their rights, different types of discrimination and abuse that many girls suffer from. Childline presented a film named "Komal" to the girls to make them aware of the difference between good and bad touch. Mrs. Anita Rana, Director, Janhit Foundation addressed the girls about eve-teasing and the self-defense tricks to protect themselves in such situations. She said "Girls should empower themselves to fight back. Don't feel shy and reserved to defend yourself and it is the time to get up and raise your voice against such evil spirits." She also told them about the childline "1098" which helps the children which are unfortunately facing problems like child labour, domestic violence, trafficking etc. The girls performed a dance.

Mrs. Anita Rana, Director, Janhit foundation started the first day of the week with a rally at Hastinapur in which 6 schools participated and 600 students followed the rally. The rally was inaugurated by Mr. Sanjeev, SDO, Forest Department and Assistant BSA, Mr. Anil Chauhan. The aim of the rally was to create awareness about conserving and protecting wildlife. They addressed the students about the importance of wildlife in balancing ecosystem and how to protect the environment and wildlife.

Gargi Public School and DAV Public school also participated in the celebration of this week. Janhit Foundation conducted a drawing and slogan writing competition for the students with the topic of wildlife protection. 500 students had participated in the competition. The prize distribution ceremony marked the closing ceremony on the 7th of October.

TOILETS

In 2015 Janhit Foundation in collaboration with Mahindra group started a campaign to build toilets in the villages of Jhajar District

This act was linked with the PM's campaign of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and in it a total number of 28 toilets were built by Janhit Foundation and in turn, the villagers who took this initiative were given cheques by the director of janhit foundation, Mrs. Anita rana. The construction of

GOOD TOUCH AND BAD TOUCH

Mrs. Anita Rana director of “Janhit Foundation” organized a campaign to spread awareness regarding sexual abuses and taught children what is good and bad touch. Janhit Foundation taught the children that they own their bodies and no one has the right to touch them unless it's okay with them. Childline made the girls aware of their private parts and encouraged them to report to their parents or anyone they trust if anyone tries to touch them.

Childline team member said, “Good touch is a touch that feels safe or feels warm and makes them smile, like parents hugging or holding hands. A bad touch is a touch which hurts one's body or feelings, like someone touching their private places.”

Mrs Anita Rana, Director of Janhit Foundation said, “Abduction and sexual victimization are the urban realities which constantly haunt every these toilets was completed over the period of 6 months. The extent of open defecation in India presents a major health and safety issue.

The women of the villages were very pleased with this campaign and were grateful to Janhit Foundation for organizing this program as they don't have to defecate in the open now.

HAND WASH PROGRAM

On 25TH December 2015, Mrs. Anita Rana, Director, Janhit Foundation organized a hand washing campaign along with some slum children. Child line team members were present at the program and Mrs. Anita Rana told the children about the child helpline number 1098. Pamphlets distributed. Mrs. Anita Rana shared the benefits of washing hands with the children. She further said that washing hands is an easy way to prevent infection. Washing hands properly before and after meals, after toilet, changing nappies and handling animals help limit the transfer of Microbes.

Anita Rana, Director, Janhit Foundation along with some slum children were present at the program and children about the child helpline number 1098. Pamphlets and stickers were also distributed.

GENERAL AWAKENING CAMPAIGN

In a joint venture of A.D.R. and U.P. Election watch, Janhit Foundation, Meerut organized a campaign called "General Awakening Campaign." In this program, Janhit Foundation interacted with the villagers and told them that all these B.D.C. candidates and District Panchayat Members of their regions at the time of elections talk about growth and development but their real motive is just to manipulate the voters and come to power. Janhit Foundation further shared some important tips for a fair and competitive elections. They said that the villagers should encourage more people at the time of elections to vote and they should not get pressurized by any candidate. The villagers should protect themselves from any kind of addictive and appealing things being distributed by the candidates. They should help the Government conduct the elections in a clean and safe
